PROGRAM PHILOSOPHY

The goal of the Angola football program is for our players to be the most successful people they can be in their lives. We want them to be more successful for having been in our program. We want them to develop positive thoughts, habits, and priorities that will allow them to do the right thing. We want them to maximize their individual talent to be the best player they can be. Our job as educators and coaches is to help our players be the best person, best student, best teammate, and best athlete they can be.
